Inaugural Function

Time: 10:30am to 11:00am

Chief Guests: 1. Er. M.S. Deshpande (Chairman, IEI, SLC Solapur)

2. Dr. Sushilkumar Pare (Professor, KLS Institute Belagavi)

The inauguration ceremony commenced with warm welcome extended to all participants, esteemed guests, faculty members and experts from various fields. It was an honour to have individuals dedicated to advancing education present at the event.

The program host Prof. A.B.Valsang initiated proceedings by introducing the theme and objectives of the Faculty Development Program. The focus was on how to write Research Paper and publish it in various journals.

The convenor and Head of Computer Engineering Dept. Prof. S.V Kulkarni, the distinguished chief guest Er. M.S. Deshpande and Principal of A.G.Patil Institute of Technology, Solapur Dr.V.V.Potdar emphasised the significance of the FDP in fostering a culture of continuous upgradation of faculties. They highlighted the importance of Research paper writing and publishing in various journals.

Er. M.S. Deshpande (KeyNote Speaker, Chairman, IEI, SLC Solapur) has given the information about in today's era innovation is a buzz word everywhere, Sir has highlighted very important part that is how to select topic for the research. We should mainly focus on three points- Health issue, Environmental issue and Communication. Sir also focussed on literature review, methodology, data collection, analysis, various tools for writing research papers. Sir has also highlighted on plagiarism, AI Chat GPT along with this for writing paper own creativity is also important.

For writing and publishing research paper your work culture and environment is also important. Sir has also enlightened on many more points on research paper and IP Rights as well.

Day: 18/01/2024

Session No. 01

Topic: How to Crystallise your Research Idea

Time: 11.00 am to 12.30 pm

Speaker: Dr. Sushilkumat Pare (Professor, KLS Institute Belagavi)

The session was commenced with introduction of the speaker Dr. Sushilkumat Pare.

Sir has started his session by saying that “whenever you are writing a paper your idea must be clear” like

- what I want to do
- what I want to achieve

He has discussed about how to bring the clarity of paper writing and he has explained what we must understand the important thing when we are writing research paper.

- Yours perspective and others perspective:- in that he said try to put the things in the perspective of othes and yours and and check multiple sources and don't rely on only one soure
- Zeoring the topic : start understading the topic from the begining
- STEM vs Humanities: STEM is curiosity and experiment and humanities is how things would impact surrounding.

He said ,”Do not choose your research topic only because it is in the fasion” like

- IoT
- Ciber Security
- Machine learning and Artificial Intelligence
- Rather think what problem you want to solve like
- Potable water
- Security of women
- Vision of Impaired

He again said “No problem is small, choose the problem on the basis of personal interest and strength and resource availability and life span of research topic”.

He highlighted some of the top journals

- By indexing/web of sciences
- By house of publication- IEEE/IET/Elsevier/Springer/ACM
- By Societies- Society of chemical science
- This session was concluded with questionnaire followed by feedbak link.

Session No. 02

Topic: Scientific Writing for Research Papers

Time: 1.30 pm to 3.30 pm

Speaker: Dr. Ganesh Kadu (Asst. Professor, Dept. of Mathematics, SPPU Pune)

The session was commenced with introduction of the speaker Dr. Ganesh Kadu.

Sir has started the session with the concept of scientific writing. He said that scientific writing can be published through books, journals, conference proceedings, scientific/ Technical reports, Expository and Review articles.

He explained about India's rich intellectual tradition about writing of research findings in Sanskrit and Pali where he mentioned about Buddhayana, Aryabhata, Hemachandra, Nagarjuna, Kanad, Patanjali and many more.

He explained the various characteristics of scientific writing like clarity of aims and objectives, clarity of thought and exposition, literature survey, references etc. He has also explained how we can organise a research paper along with some dos and don'ts of good scientific writing.

He said that grammar is extremely important when we send writing for consideration in publications. Besides grammar following points are also important-

- Appropriateness of language suitable to the topic of writing
- Formal writing style
- Use of easy to understand language
- Shorter sentences (one idea, one sentence)

Sir has also focussed on plagiarism, where he said that plagiarism is nothing but violation of ethics. He has also focused on Open Researcher and Contributor ID (ORCID) which addresses many researchers' problem regarding same name, change of name, inconsistent use of abbreviations, cultural differences in writing names or name order etc.

He also focussed on different criteria that should be used while selecting the good journal. He said that while selecting journal following aspects should be considered-

- Editorial board of Journal
- Previous papers published in the journal
- Opinion of peers about the journal
- Indicators such as Impact Factor, SNIP, SJR
- Quarters of journals

This session was concluded with a question answer session followed by a feedback link.

Session No. 03

Topic: Technical Writing SkillSets for Journal Publications

Time: 10.30 am to 12.30 pm

Speaker: Dr. M. M. Nadkatti (Professor, Dept.Mech Engineering, Gogte Institute of Tech, Belagavi)

The session was commenced with introduction of the speaker Dr.M.M.Nadkatti by Prof. P.B.Kulkarni.

Sir has started his session by saying that “Starts with some 2 or more Conference Publications and later then switch to Journal Publications”.

He has discussed some of the objectives which are required for journal publication and also discussed why papers are rejected without any analysis any review that objectives are as follows:

- He says that very first identify the Journal to which the article should be submitted.
- To understand the structure of Technical Journal Writing so that ,papers gets good review comments and final acceptance for publication.
- He also says that convey complex information to readers in simple and understandable way
- Compilation of precise, relevant information without any redundancy.
- He also says that do mapping of objectives of research study with objectives of paper at the beginning and its outcomes at the end of the paper.
- Common mistakes committed while compiling the draft copy of the Paper, especially for Non-Native English research scholars.

He later on discussed about What is Technical Writing?, He says that Technical writing is a piece of writing which focuses on factual and straight forward content and technical papers are published to inform and instruct and educate the user about some specific topic.

He then discussed some technical writing key points:

- Technical Writing Style.
- Skills to write technical papers.

- Steps involved in writing technical papers.
- Factors to be considered before writing a Journal Paper.

This session was concluded with questionnaire followed by feedback link.

Session No. 04

Topic: Reference Management Tools

Time: 1.30 pm to 3.30 pm

Speaker: Dr. Sumanth P. Desai (Asst. Professor & IT Coordinator, KLS Institute of Management Education & Research, Belagavi, Karnataka)

The session was commenced with introduction of the speaker Prof.Sumanth P. Desai.

Sir has started his session by giving an overview about “What is the necessity of Reference Management Tool” like

1. Need for Reference Manager
2. Introduction to Reference Manager
3. Mendeley as Reference Manager
4. Setting up and Managing Library
5. Citation Plugin
6. Forming and Interacting with groups

He has discussed about two problems that we researchers face during our research.

1. How do I manage Scholarly literature efficiently?

Giving Solution to this problem he spoke about Pre-Internet Era and Post-Internet Era and Sources of data.

How do I retrieve my literature?

Giving Solution to this problem he spoke about the common mistakes we do and hardware issues that happens while storing our data.

2. Too many Citation/Reference styles??

Giving Solution to this problem he said that Citations/References are the very integral part of any research paper and many of the articles get rejected due to the mistakes done in the citations and references.

He said, Solution to these problems is to make use of a Reference Management Tools like

1. Mendeley
2. EndNote
3. RefViz

He spoke about “Mendeley- The Reference Management Tool”, Mendeley’s overview, registration with Mendeley, downloading Mendeley.

He took hands-on for working with Mendeley

1. Working with Web Version of Mendeley and accessing our articles and papers
2. Working with Desktop Version of Mendeley
3. Creating our own libraries in Mendeley
4. Using Citations Plug-in Moving towards the end of the session he spoke about the “Collaboration- the interesting feature about Mendeley” which helps working groups together.

This session was concluded with questionnaire followed by feedback link.

Topic: IPR and Patenting

Time: 10.30 am to 12.30 pm

Speaker: Dr. Suraj Bhojar (Associate Director, MIT Art, Design & Technology University, Pune.)

The session was commenced with introduction of the speaker Dr.M.M.Nadkatti by Prof. M.N.Deshmukh.

Sir has started the discussion with the importance of the topic research paper writing for updation of the faculties. He initialized the session with the agenda of the session. Sir was continuously active on chatbox so as to make everyone active throughout the session.

Sir explained the concept of IP rights with many more examples. He used different logos to explain the facts related to IP rights. He also used a video to explain IP is everywhere. Sir has also focused on the terms Innovation and Invention. He used some routine examples that are related to innovation. He was consistent with his statement that Innovation is nothing but Jugaad in Indian system.

He explained role of IP in various sectors such as innovation, business etc. He said that the term IP is often used and not understood. Sir has also focused on

- Copyrights
- Why to use Copyrights
- What is ISSN
- Works covered under the Copyrights.

Sir has also discussed one case study (DU photocopy case) related to Copyrights. He also conducted one quiz on the same so as to make the session interactive. Later on he focused on the term Trademarks. So as to explain this term he used the examples of Paytm and PayPal.

In the last part of the session he explained regarding Patents with the point's like-
Patenting criteria

What can be patented?

What cannot be patented?

This session was concluded with question answer session followed by feedback link.

Session No. 06

Topic: Art of Research

Time: 1.30 pm to 3.30 pm

Speaker: Dr. Shripad M. Garge (Associate Professor, Indian Institute of Technology, Mumbai.)

The session was commenced with introduction of the speaker Dr. Shripad M Garge sir by Prof. M. N. Deshmukh madam. Sir has started the session with statement the art of research is asking good questions. It is in Upnishada also. How to ask good question that is important. There are eight steps to ask a good question.

- 1) To take survey in which two parts are important a) gather the data b) Organize the data
- 2) Observsation - To observe the things in proper way
- 3) Conjectures is a mathematical term in this sir has some examples on Ramanujan statemnts 4) Re-interpetation is nothing but what you know just to see in different way
- 5) Analogy - To compare two theorys on the same method.
- 6) Transfer the idea from one area to another.
- 7) Induction - To make a generalize the methods
- 8) Converse or Conclusion.

Short form all the eight point is SOCRATIC.

At the end of the session many participant has asked some questions and sir has given satesfactory answers.

Very informetive session has been conducted by Dr. Shripad M Garge sir.

Plagiarism Check

Plagiarism is presenting ideas or work of others as your own, i.e., without acknowledging the original authors.

Note that:

- plagiarism is violation of research ethics
- there is a difference between similarity score and plagiarism
- there are applications/tools which help you to do plagiarism check (e.g. Turnitin)

Observe how eminent scientists/ engineers cite ideas from other sources or authors.

Let Q_1, Q_2 be a finite reduced ring with Q_1 maximal ideal \mathfrak{m}_1 and Q_2 maximal ideal \mathfrak{m}_2 . The class of rings Q_1, Q_2 contains the Boolean rings as a subclass. When Q_1, Q_2 are commutative, Q_1 is a subring of Q_2 and vice versa. When Q_1, Q_2 are non-commutative, Q_1 is a subring of Q_2 and vice versa. In this paper, we study the structure of the Boolean rings Q_1, Q_2 and their relationship with the Boolean rings Q_1, Q_2 . We also study the structure of the Boolean rings Q_1, Q_2 and their relationship with the Boolean rings Q_1, Q_2 . 3. Search suitable journal for article based on Scope of Journal, Paper Factor and indexing
4. Proof reading and editing skills (Grammar and spell-check)
5. Discuss and finalize the main author, co authors and corresponding authors
6. Develop rough draft of the paper
7. Revise and revise the paper at least 3 times.

OBJECTIVES of the COURSE

- I. Identifying the Journal to which the article should be submitted.
- II. To understand the structure of Technical Journal Writing so that, papers gets good review comments and final acceptance for publication
- III. To convey complex information to readers in simple and understandable way
- IV. Completion of precise, relevant information without any redundancy
- V. Mapping Objectives of research study with Objectives of Paper at the beginning and its outcomes at the end of the Paper.
- VI. Common mistakes committed while compiling the draft copy of the Paper, especially for Non-Native English research scholars
- VII. Citation practices

Dr. Nadkatti M. M. (Mechanical Department, KLS, GIT Belagavi, Karnataka.) Guiding on Technical Writing skill sets For Journal Publication.

This is well written article, but where are Citations / References /Bibliography ????

Why Citations / References ?

- Established academic/research practice
- To give credit to others for their work
- Show depth, breadth & quality of your reading!
- To add credibility to your work by showing that you have used valid information sources
- To show how your work is related to previous work
- To avoid plagiarism
- To help readers to understand the context & find further information

Dr. Sumanth P. Desai (Asst. Professor & IT Coordinator, KLS Institute of Management Education & Research, Belagavi, Karnataka.) Guiding on Reference Management Tools.

ए. जी. पाटील अभियांत्रिकीत रिसर्च पेपर राइटिंगवर कार्यशाळा

संचार प्रतिनिधी

► सोलापूर, दि. ३०-

येथील ए. जी. पाटील अभियांत्रिकीमध्ये आय. इ. आय. सोलापूर लोकल सेंटरच्या संयुक्त विद्यमाने तीन दिवसीय राष्ट्रीय स्तरावरील रिसर्च पेपर राइटिंग आणि आय. पी. राइटस या विषयावर ई-कार्यशाळा संपन्न झाल्याची माहिती संस्थेचे प्राचार्य डॉ. व्ही. व्ही. पोतदार यांनी दिली.

कार्यशाळेत जम्मू-काश्मीर, गुजरात, उत्तर प्रदेश, महाराष्ट्र, गोवा, कर्नाटक, आंध्र प्रदेश, तेलंगणा, तमिळनाडू या राज्यातून सुमारे ७२८ प्राध्यापकांनी

सहभाग नोंदविला. कार्यशाळेच्या अध्यक्षस्थानी प्राचार्य डॉ. व्ही. व्ही. पोतदार होते. तर आय. इ. आय.-एस. एल. सी.चे प्रा. मोहन देशपांडे यांनी नोट स्पीकर म्हणून मार्गदर्शन केले. डॉ. सुशीलकुमार पारे, डॉ. गणेश कडू, डॉ. एम. एम. नाडकट्टी, डॉ. सुमंत देसाई, डॉ. सूरज भोयर, डॉ. श्रीपाद गार्गे यांनी तीन दिवशी कार्यशाळेत मार्गदर्शन केले. या कार्यशाळेचे उद्दिष्ट हे रिसर्च पेपर चांगल्या जर्नलमध्ये पब्लिश करण्यासाठी कशा पद्धतीने लिहावा. तसेच पेटंटला जाण्यासाठी काय निकष वापरले जातात हे माहीत व्हावे हे होते.

संगणक विभागाचे प्रमुख प्रा. एस. व्ही. कुलकर्णी यांनी कार्यक्रमाचे कन्व्हेनर म्हणून काम पाहिले. प्रा. ए. बी. वळसंग, प्रा. एम. एन. देशमुख यांनी को-ऑर्डिनेटर म्हणून काम पाहिले. प्रा. पी. बी. कुलकर्णी यांनी सूत्रसंचालन केले.

हा कार्यक्रम यशस्वीरीत्या पार पाडण्यासाठी प्रा. ए. बी. हन्नूरे, प्रा. ए. पी. होसाळे, अक्षय बेडगे या सर्वांनी परिश्रम घेतले. कॅम्पस डायरेक्टर डॉ. एम. ए. चौगुले यांनी सर्वांना मार्गदर्शन केले. संस्थेचे सचिव एस. ए. पाटील व ट्रस्टी शिवानंद पाटील यांनी सर्वांचे कौतुक केले.
